

Mercado Verde

Put your food dollars to work for the local community while getting access to the freshest produce around:

- Join each Saturday 11am - 3pm, support and shop directly with participating producers.
- Or explore the farmers market with a local. We'll introduce you to the area and its agricultural history and present, introduce you to the local fruits, vegetables and other harvests and provide samples of a number of the items available. Book here:

Cajas Verde

For those who are committed to eating locally we make available a weekly CSA box of fresh seasonal produce from our participating Osa producers:

- No time to visit the market? Receive a box of the weeks fresh local produce available from our participating producers or use la carte ordering for delivery or pickup through La Feria:
